When and Where to File

You should file in the Northern District if you were convicted and sentenced in one of these counties: Alameda, Contra Costa, Del Norte, Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Monterey, Napa, San Benito, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Francisco, San Mateo and Sonoma. You should also file in this district if you are challenging the manner in which your sentence is being executed, such as loss of good time credits, and you are confined in one of these counties. Habeas L.R. 2254-3(a).

If you are challenging your conviction or sentence and you were not convicted and sentenced in one of the above-named fifteen counties, your petition will likely be transferred to the United States District Court for the district in which the state court that convicted and sentenced you is located. If you are challenging the execution of your sentence and you are not in prison in one of these counties, your petition will likely be transferred to the district court for the district that includes the institution where you are confined. Habeas L.R. 2254-3(b).

Who to Name as Respondent

You must name the person in whose actual custody you are. This usually means the Warden or jailor. Do not name the State of California, a city, a county or the superior court of the county in which you are imprisoned or by whom you were convicted and sentenced. These are not proper respondents. Attorney General is Jerry Brown

If you are not presently in custody pursuant to the state judgment against which you seek relief but may be subject to such custody in the future (e.g., detainees), you must name the person in whose custody you are now and the Attorney General of the state in which the judgment you seek to attack was entered.

Dear United States
District Court,

Hello this is Williams, Kevin #057632-2, here in Atascadero State Hospital, and I would like to explain myself a little about my current placement, it's up to the Courts if or me also to see that this situation ~~comes~~ comes across fair and willingly and in the best of hands. I don't have argument, but I did deteriorate since being in Alameda County Jail and I feel I should warn that a higher hearment maybe what I need since this is base material? I'm asking the Court leverage to be moved for both Civil and Criminal, might, through Appeals since my Case is delicate, that being my Civil Suit. I'll dig some-more and see, but I'll also contact the District Attorney's Office to see if they can drop the clause of possession of a weapon, and with that thank you.

Mr. Williams

P.S. I would like to move on on my Civil Suit.
